

Anthropology of the Name
By Sylvain Lazarus

I. Lenin – Inventor of Modern Politics

Vyadimar Ilych Lenin, is the inventor of modern politics – he developed intellectual modes of history and followed his practice with a few axioms – centralized party and lines which then articulated with Soviets.

II. Lapsing of a Site

The Soviet lapsed, just as the Cultural Revolution and its commune lapsed.

III. Mode of History, Mode of Intellectualism

The vessel between people and river of the party then creates a thought relation to the real.
